Michelle Curtis, Occupational Therapist (OT)

"Occupational therapy aims to assist people to live their life to the fullest by aiding them to participate in activities, or 'occupations', that are meaningful or important to them such as, participating in class, playing at recess and eating at lunchtime" (American Occupational Therapy Association, 2014)

OT's can help a student to:

- Improve academic skills needed to complete classroom tasks (handwriting, attention, organization)
- Address fine and gross motor skills during class time and at recess
- Improve independence and develop self-help skills
- Address regulation of the senses to improve academic performance

Chris Janzen
Psychologist

Chris is a Registered Psychologist with over 16 years of experience working in various settings with an aim for understanding and supporting the mental health needs of children and youth, as well as with caregivers and educators.

Chris is passionate about recognizing individual strengths and challenges, as well as patterns of behaviour and coping skills. He acknowledges that meeting someone's needs is founded on building a common understanding and a plan, working through obstacles, followed by recognizing and celebrating progress.

Chris has extensive experience in assessments and counselling. He specializes in conducting ADHD and Psychoeducational assessments. He believes that it is especially important to not only deliver the results of an assessment, but to also to support caregivers by creating a plan which respects the goals of the family and working collaboratively to work towards meeting those goals.

Chris also uses a range of therapeutic elements from Cognitive Behavioural Therapy (CBT), Dialectical Behaviour Therapy (DBT), Solution Focused therapy, Family Systems Therapy to work with children, parents, and families with presenting concerns, such as ADHD, learning disabilities, Autism Spectrum Disorder, parent-child conflict, parenting struggles, anxiety, depression, school conflict, obsessive compulsive tendencies, oppositional defiance, and developmental and behavioural concerns. He also has experience supporting systems (organizations, schools, etc) during times of crisis.

Dallyce Canoa
Provisional Psychologist

Dallyce is a Registered Provisional Psychologist who brings over 10 years of experience working within the school system, supporting children and youth with a wide range of needs, including Autism Spectrum Disorder, ADHD, learning challenges, and emotional and behavioural concerns. She has also served as a Behavioural Specialist, working closely with youth and their families across schools, homes, and community settings.

Dallyce is passionate about recognizing each individual's unique strengths and challenges, as well as patterns of behaviour and coping. She believes that meeting a person's needs begins with building a shared understanding and a plan, working through barriers together, and celebrating progress along the way. Her practice is rooted in creating safe, supportive, and collaborative therapeutic relationships characterized by empathy, respect, and trust.

Drawing from Cognitive Behavioural Therapy (CBT), Solution-Focused Therapy, play therapy, and trauma-informed approaches, Dallyce works with children, youth, and families to address a variety of concerns. She values collaboration with caregivers and educators, believing that lasting growth is best achieved when everyone works together toward common goals.

Patricia Henderson, Speech & Language Pathologist (SLP)

"SLPs have a variety of roles in schools, including assessing and diagnosing speech, language, communication and swallowing disorders. As members of interprofessional teams, they also contribute to educational goal setting, planning and curriculum accessibility... Interventions may take the form of individual treatment, small or large group instruction, and/or consulting and collaborating with teachers, parents and other educational support staff" (Speech, Language & Audiology Canada, 2019)
